

PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT

The YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta, on behalf of itself and its affiliate branch locations, offers this web site, including all information, products, software, features and services delivered through this web site (this "Web Site"), to you, the user. Please read this privacy policy statement (this "Privacy Policy Statement") carefully. It covers our practices regarding the collection, use, disclosure and protection of information that we collect about users through this Web Site. It does not apply to those of our web sites or portions of this Web Site that do not display or link to this Privacy Policy Statement or that have their own privacy policy statement, or to any third-party Web Site that may be linked from this Web Site.

The YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta reserves the right to make changes to this Privacy Policy Statement immediately by posting the changed Privacy Policy Statement on this Web Site. By continuing to use this Web Site, you are agreeing to all changes made by the YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta. A printed version of this Privacy Policy Statement shall be admissible in judicial or administrative proceedings based upon or relating to use of this Web Site to the same extent and subject to the same conditions as other business documents and records originally generated and maintained in printed form.

Terms of Use

Please read our terms of use at <http://www.ymcapass.com> to understand the terms applicable to your use of this Web Site. By using this Web Site, you acknowledge that you have read our terms of use, and this Privacy Policy Statement, and agree to comply with all terms.

Cookies and Data Collection Tools

For each user of this Web Site, the YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta may automatically collect and store information about which specific pages are visited and the domain name (e.g., ymcaatlanta.org) of the user. This information is used for internal purposes, to tailor information to individual visitors, for web site traffic audits and other administrative purposes.

This Web Site may place a "cookie" on the browser of your computer. A cookie may be used to tell when your computer has contacted this Web Site. The YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta uses this information for editorial purposes and for other purposes such as delivery of features, so that we can customize delivery of information to you. For example, cookies may be used to ensure that you will not see the same banner too often in a single session. We may also occasionally use other companies to set cookies on this Web Site and gather cookie information for us. In some cases, we may also use another company to operate web servers, host web sites, conduct surveys, or provide user services. We use the cookie information gathered by these companies in the same manner as stated above.

You can decide if and how your computer will accept a cookie by configuring the preferences or options in your browser. However, if you choose to reject cookies, you may not be able to use certain of the products, services or features of this Web Site.

Personal Information We Collect and Use on this Web Site

We define “personal information” as information collected by the YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta through this Web Site that may be used to uniquely identify you as an individual. Generally, we need this information to personalize and publicize this Web Site based on your interests, including making you aware of features and messages, responding to your request for additional information, to communicate offers to you, to maintain lists of authorized users of our services, and to otherwise operate and administer our business. Other examples of when we may ask you to provide personal information include if you register for any of our programs or events. Personal information does not include any public information about you that is available through federal, state, or local public records. It also does not include any information that, by itself, does not uniquely identify you, such as raw data aggregated across many users. If you provide us with personal information, we will only use it for the purposes described herein and at the point of collection, and reserve the right to share it with our affiliates for such purposes.

We will not sell, license, transmit or disclose this personal information outside of the YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta and its affiliates, except (1) if you expressly authorize us to do so, (2) if it is necessary to allow our service providers, organizers or agents to provide services to us, (3) if it is necessary in connection with a sale of the YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta or sale of this Web Site, and (4) otherwise as we are required or permitted by law, including in response to subpoenas, court orders, or legal process.

This Web Site is a general audience web site that is not targeted or directed to children under the age of 13, and we do not knowingly collect or use personally identifiable information from children under the age of 13. While we support participation by the whole family, we recommend that children under the age of 13 only use this Web Site with active parental supervision.

Special Statement for Career and Volunteer Applicants

Any personal information you provide the YMCA of Metropolitan Atlanta when applying for a career or volunteer position with us will be used solely to consider and act upon your application. We may retain your personal information for a period of time, but only for as long as necessary for such purposes. We may disclose your personal information to our affiliates, organizers, and agents for the purpose of evaluating your qualifications for the particular role you applied for, or other available roles. We may also disclose your personal information to third parties hired by us to assist us in the employment servicing and hiring process.
